FIND POLITICIANS ARE TOO PARTIAL

Should Emulate Us, League Speakers Tell Women at Convention.

ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Other political organizations should profit by the example of the League of Women Voters in having constructive political meetings, Mrs. Louis Slade, State Chairman of the New York League of Women Voters, said in an address at the annual meeting of the Montgomery County League of Women Voters, at Norristown last Thursday.

The conference was held all day, with Miss Gertrude Ely, of Bryn Mawr, county chairman, presiding. Mrs. Slade was the principal speaker. The morning was given over to the presentation of reports from the chairmen of the various branches of Montgomery county. The growth of interest in the organization was stressed in the reports. Particular emphasis was given to the necessity of arousing all citizens, men and women, to assume their responsibilities of citizenship, not only in national elections, but in State, city and county, as well.

Mrs. Slade, in her address in the afternoon, criticized the form that many political meetings take. Instead of being constructive, concerning themselves with definite assertions, she said, too many partisan meetings are taken up with boosting their own parties and condemning the other parties.

"Much Propaganda."

"If you go to a Republican meeting, too often you will find that one-quarter of the time is given over to telling what marvels of genius the Republican candidates are, while the other three-quarters is spent telling that the Democrats are devils. At a Democratic meeting the situation is reversed—it is the Democrats who are the archangels and the Republicans who are the devils."

MISS ELY TO ADDRESS NARBERTH WOMEN VOTERS

Tax Survey Report to Be Presented Monday.

Members and friends of the Narberth League of Women Voters are in line for a specially interesting afternoon at the meeting to be held Monday, November 9, at 3 P. M. in the Y. M. C. A.

Miss Gertrude Ely, of Bryn Mawr, whom everyone delights to hear, will be the principal speaker of the afternoon. Miss Ely is chairman of Montgomery county and the second region, which embraces New York, Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware and Pennsylvania States, and is also a member of the State board of the league.

A report of the county convention held last week will be given by Mrs. B. Earl Achenbach. A resume of this meeting alone would justify attendance, and the results obtained on the local tax survey by Mrs. E. C. Griswold should be of concern to all.

An outline of the program for the State convention will be given and the question of sending a delegate considered. In addition several important questions are to be presented for the members' consideration.

In conclusion a social hour will be provided by the hostesses, Mrs. A. R. Kneibler and Mrs. Abbie W. Nickerson.

League meetings are always open to any woman whether members or not—and members are requested to invite their friends.

Every-Other Thursday Luncheon.

For Thursday of next week (November 12) a special treat is offered the patrons of these luncheons. Mrs. I. Harris Metcalf, director of the Rhode Island League of Women Voters, who has just returned from an extended visit to the Hague and Geneva, will speak and will also exhibit her lantern slides, showing for the first time in this country scenes and personalities both at the Hague, where the World Court is located, and also at Geneva, the seat of the League of Nations. There will be no increase in the price of the luncheon, which will be served, as in the past for 85 cents at 12:30 o'clock promptly. Phone reservations direct to 1725 Spruce street. Spruce 5657.

Wohlert's Accusations Lead to Unusual Ground Breaking

Walking to and from his Narberth Park home during the past few weeks, A. E. Wohlert has been observing the progress of the street paving work on Conway and Stuart avenues. Last week he stood for a moment on the corner where a heavy roller was finishing off the foundation layer of rock.

As the heavy machine approached the intersection he looked closer. Surely enough, thick yellow clay was oozing to the surface in several places. He rushed to a typewriter. On Friday Street Commissioner George B. Suplee received a letter which read in part:

"At the intersection of Stuart and Conway avenues, the Good Roads people are to the best of their ability disguising the fact that they have patches of yellow clay two feet wide and six feet or more long clean up to the surface, the surface merely being disguised with a few stones. A lot of yellow clay is also used as top dressing."

"You will find that all of Conway avenue is more or less in a deplorable condition on account of the yellow clay mixed with the stones."

"The intersection of Stuart and Dudley avenues is also a disguised bad job."

Mr. Suplee sent the letter post-haste to Albright and Mebus, the Borough engineers, and Charles F. Mebus, who has been supervising the road work replied in a long letter, in which he said:

"The statement that yellow clay is used as top dressing is simply not true. Yellow lime stone screenings have been used, which might lead a superficial observer to think it was clay. The surface merely being disguised with a few stones is equally misleading, as during the wet weather of the past two weeks no foundation would stand up under a ten-ton roller if made as Mr. Wohlert states."

"Instead of putting down a base of less thickness than specified, Mr. Ramsdell has been most liberal, and many places, if dug up, would show more than required thickness."

When the reply of the engineers was received, Mr. Wohlert countered by stating that they were in no position to refute his claims, because the sections complained of had been hidden under three inches of top dressing before they examined it.

About the polls, Tuesday, Mr. Wohlert spoke at some length to many of the voters, charging lax supervision of the work by the borough authorities. Burgess Carl B. Metzger arrived on the scene during one of the discussions.

"If the work is wrong, Mr. Wohlert deserves a vote of thanks for warning us," he stated, "but in justice to the contractor, statements of this kind should not be made without adequate proof."

"But the work is covered up, and the mud holes will not be exposed until the traffic ruins the road."

P. O. TO CLOSE

The local post office will be closed next Wednesday, Armistice Day. There will be one delivery of mail in the morning but the stamp windows will close at 9 A. M.

The day will be observed as a holiday in all banks, and in the public schools of the township there will be no classes. Services commemorating Armistice Day will be held in the schools early in the week.

WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Hear of State Convention and Members Trip Abroad.

The meeting of the Women's Community Club on Tuesday, November 3, was in the nature of a review (not "revue," please). In the first place, Mrs. H. A. Jacobs reviewed the recent convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Woman's Clubs at Wilkes-Barre, where she, with Mrs. W. P. Bailey, represented the Narberth Club.

To condense those four busy days, when even breakfasts were made into conferences, to the brevity of a half-hour report was an almost impossible task, even with the omission of the reports of State officers and committees which take up most of the general sessions of an annual convention and embody the real work of the organization. The question of a State flower, discussed in the clubs last year, was left open, as very few votes for any one flower had been received. The universal membership and per capita dues plan, which has been a burning question, was adopted. Each member was urged to plant a tree this year as a sign of interest in reforestation. The usefulness of the letters on pending legislation which were sent to the clubs last winter was discussed and its continuation decided upon.

There were talks by experts on such timely subjects as the World Court, uniform marriage and divorce laws, lessening traffic dangers on the highways, and the progress of the Sesquicentennial. Mrs. Jacobs could not praise too highly the hospitality of Wilkes-Barre and its competent organization in every detail.

FRANK H. HEWITT

Frank H. Hewitt, of 116 Essex avenue, died suddenly at his home last Friday.

Mr. Hewitt was born in Alexandria, Pa. He came to this city in 1875 and for the last forty-three years was connected with Bailey, Banks & Biddle Co., of which he was cashier when he was retired last March. He was a member of Christ Reformed Church, Sixteenth and Green streets, since 1875. He is survived by a widow and a son, Roland K., and a daughter, Edith.

The funeral was held Tuesday at 10:45 A. M., from his late residence. Burial was made at Westminster Cemetery.

2000 TICKETS TO BE SOLD FOR FRAY

1500 Reserved Seats for L. M. Students—500 for Radnor.

WILL USE NEW STANDS

Tickets for the annual Lower Merion-Radnor High football clash, which this year will take place in Ardmore, will be placed on sale 10 days before the game, on Saturday, November 21, it was announced by authorities at the high school this week.

The new stands built on the Lower Merion field this year will enable that school to seat every student of both schools who wishes to see the game, a feat which has hitherto been unknown. Over 2000 seats will be reserved for students. Of these, 1500 will be held for Lower Merion rooters and 500 for the visiting Radnorites.

After students are taken care of, it is expected that there will be still a few grand stand seats left for the general public.

The tilt this year promises to be one of much interest. Both teams have lost but one game each this season.

Hi-Y Club Meets.

The third meeting this year of the Hi-Y Club of Lower Merion was held on Thursday evening at the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. banquet hall. Mr. Albert Adam, the Lower Merion football tutor, was elected faculty adviser and proceeded to fulfill his office by giving a lecture on current events. He spoke of the fine work done while the Lorcarno Conference was in procedure and pointed out some of the articles that particularly trend toward European peace.

His next topic was the recent Greco-Bulgarian atrocities and the effect that the Lorcarno Treaty and League of Nations might have on that subject. He also reviewed the causes of the recent Balkan outbreak and brought both countries' claims to light so that each student might draw his own conclusion. Mr. Adam plans to give a short current event review at each meeting for his share of the program.

Clark Craig, Pennsylvania freshman football mentor, did not make his appearance due to a previous engagement, but hopes to speak to the club at an early date.

A short talk was given by Mr. Edwin Peake concerning the club's business and shortly afterwards committees were appointed for membership; a committee on relation to the Y. M. C. A., a committee on relation to the high school and a committee on athletics.

Girls' Hockey.

Hockey is playing a major part in the fall sports for girls in spite of the fact that this is the first year that the school has been allowed to be represented in that sport. Within the last week the hockey team has registered two triumphs over veteran combinations and on opponents' fields.

The first victory was over Cheltenham by a close score of three to two. The Cheltenham game was hotly contested and it wasn't until the last few seconds that the wooden sphere was sent over for a win.

FUNK OPENS GARAGE

Charles E. Funk, popular auto mechanic, who has had a repair shop for the past two years in the coal yard, has taken over the garage at 107 Essex avenue formerly run by Ed Wipf.

Mr. Funk has transferred his repair shop to the new site, where he will continue to have as his assistant, Earl Mecke. The garage has been refinished, and the new owner will use it for storage of private cars. The building has a capacity of 18. Gasoline and tires will be carried.

HOSPITAL DONATIONS

Donations for the Presbyterian Hospital of jellies and can goods will be received by the women of the auxiliary of the Narberth Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, November 11, between 10 o'clock and 4 at the Ludwig School building.

This is the annual Thanksgiving offering for the hospital and the request should be cheerfully responded to.

SOUTH SIDE BEATS WOHLERT FOR BOROUGH COUNCIL SEAT

KIDDERS BUSY

"Kidders" and complimentary voters were busy in the election Tuesday. In the South Ardmore district Albert S. Horn received five votes on the Socialist ticket for prothonotary. In the same district Frank O. Beam received one vote on the Socialist ticket for jury commissioner and five votes on the Labor party ticket for director of the poor.

In Cynwyd John C. Stine, popular chairman of the Neighborhood Club Banquet Committee, was given 21 votes on the Democratic ticket for the office of inspector of elections.

In Narberth, where one big election district was recently divided into three parts, voters forgot precinct lines and in two cases voted for people who resided outside of their districts.

Ella R. Murray drew votes for the office of assessor in both the first and second districts, and C. C. Tyson was voted for as inspector in both of these districts. The strange part is he was elected in both precincts!

REGULAR TICKET ROLLS UP BIG VOTE IN COUNTY

Montgomery Gives One of Biggest Off-Year Majorities.

A sweeping majority was given the Republican State and County ticket, Tuesday, by the voters of Montgomery county at the polls, notwithstanding the many local contests in districts wherein party lines were cast aside in the keenness of the race for district officers. Neither State nor county Republican aspirants suffered in votes through this situation.

In Lower Merion and Narberth the regular county ticket went over with big majorities. The actual vote is given in tabulated form elsewhere in these columns.

The official returns for the county approximately gave the following totals:

Judge, Superior Court—Jesse E. B. Cunningham, R., 26,644; Jesse E. B. Cunningham, S., 432; Jesse E. B. Cunningham, P., 250; William A. McGuire, D., 10,594; William A. McGuire, L., 147.

Judge, Common Pleas Court—John Faber Miller, R., 27,404; John Faber Miller, D., 10,551; John Henry Nelson, S., 214.

Prothonotary—Isaiah T. Haldeman, R., 26,803; Isaiah T. Haldeman, P., 292; Harvey Unruh, D., 10,899; Albert S. Horne, L., 153; Albert S. Horne, S., 257.

Directors of the Poor—H. R. Thomas, R., 27,034; H. R. Thomas, P., 454; Joseph B. Osmin, D., 10,961; Frank Q. Bean, L., 229; Horace W. Bright, S., 197.

Jury Commissioner—J. Ira Fisher, R., 26,700; J. Ira Fisher, P., 275; John F. Weyand, D., 11,249; Frank Q. Bean, S., 348.

ANOTHER ELECTION

Fathers' Association Now in the Political Limelight.

That's over. What? The election. Oh, yes, but we have another election coming off soon. When? Wednesday night, December 2, at 7:45 o'clock, at the Scout House. Who for? For the officers of the Fathers' Association of Narberth.

Annual meeting will be held on that date. Mr. Frye as president (Howdy Burgess) will officiate. Vice President Nash, Secretary Monnington and Directors Cabrey and Ferguson will also be on hand. The troop committee will be present, as it will also be the business of the evening to elect a new troop committee for 1926 for the Boy Scouts. There are now two troops—Lieutenant Commander Van Auken in charge of one and I. N. Wilson in charge of the other, assisted by Scoutmasters Wilson, Jenkins, Atkins, McNiven and Lane.

Please, you men of Narberth, keep that date open. The scout movement is growing and the boys need the assistance and co-operation of their Big Brothers, not only one night in the years to come, but every night and every day. The Fathers' Association is intended to help. Will you do your part?

Mrs. H. V. Whitney, of Essex avenue, has returned from a vacation in Atlantic City, where she stayed while Mr. Whitney was on a two weeks' hunting trip.

Clarence Kaerber Defeats Democrat by 131 Votes in Election Tuesday.

REPUBLICANS WIN ALL

Despite a vigorous campaign, and the backing of several groups, A. E. Wohlert was defeated Tuesday for a seat in Council by Clarence Kaerber, Republican nominee.

The South Side defeated the Democrat. In the two North Side districts he polled 22 votes more than his competitor, but the District Three voters sank him many fathoms deep to the tune of 216-63.

Despite the fact that the election in general lacked interest, a few more voters turned out than appeared for the September primaries. Residents of Narberth Park and members of the Street Paving group were particularly in evidence.

Commenting on his defeat, Mr. Wohlert said: "I enjoyed the campaign immensely, and at least I made them sit up and take notice."

Despite the defeat of Mr. Wohlert, the Narberth Street Improvement Association, which has turned itself into a political group, elected two of its candidates, Robert F. Wood and John R. Hall. They also endorsed Daniel Leitch, who was re-elected. A very strong effort was made to win a seat for Mr. Wohlert, in the belief that the clique would thus control four of the seven seats in the Borough legislative body.

Messrs. Wood and Leitch polled the exact same number of votes, 811. Mr. Wood, President of the Street Improvement Association, has been spoken of for Council ever since the success of his group in putting over the $100,000 program to eliminate four miles of Narberth mud. His name is also prominently mentioned as a possibility for President of Council, upon the retirement of W. R. D. Hall on January 1.

Henry A. Frye, youthful candidate for Burgess, led the local poll with 828 votes. Mr. Frye is a veteran of the world war, is 30 years of age, and is associated with State Senator Fletcher W. Stites in the latter's law practice in Philadelphia. Mr. Frye has been identified with Borough work for some time in the capacity of "deputy solicitor," handling much of Mr. Stites' borough work.

Mrs. Anna R. Van Auken and Walter Steckbeck were elected to the School Board. Jesse S. Harris, retiring member, received a substantial complimentary vote under the Democratic ballot. He was defeated for the Republican nomination in September. The election of Mrs. Van Auken will give the School Board two women members and three men. The other woman member, Mrs. Grace C. Batchelor, is Chairman of the Instruction Committee of the Schools.

Mrs. Abbie W. Nickerson was given 818 votes on the two tickets for Tax Collector. She is at the present time Assessor, and will succeed Raymond C. Jones in the Tax Collector job.

Following are the election officers selected at the polling Tuesday, along with the votes that they received:

First District—Assessor, Louise V. Cockrill, R., 208; Ella Murray, D., 48; Judge, Frank A. O'Brien, 239; Inspector, C. C. Tyson, R., 182; Charles C. Mason, D., 161.

Second District—Assessor, Ella R. Murray, 316; Judge, J. W. McAuliffe, 325; Inspector, C. C. Tyson, R., 230; Edward S. Haws, D., 101.

Third District—Assessor, Mary M. Livingston, 219; William Kirkpatrick, 45; Judge, J. Baird Caldwell, 262; Inspector, A. H. Durboraw, R., 231; Edward U. Smith, D., 31.

A GOOD MEAL

Don't forget Thursday, November 19. The women of the Lutheran Church will serve a good sauer kraut dinner from 5:30 to 8 o'clock for 65 cents. Tickets on sale at Whiteside Brothers' fruit store, Haverford avenue.

LOWER MERION HIGH SCHOOL

The second conquest was a victory over Lansdowne by a score of two to nothing, the Lower Merion dribblers holding the Lansdowne eleven scoreless and easily outplaying their opponents by clever stick-work and passing.

The line-up for the first team is as follows:

Cynthia Metzger—Right wing.
Catherine Beque—Right inside.
Anna Sell (Capt.)—Centre forward.
Peg Foley—Centre half.
Joe Landis—Right fullback.
Betty McDowell—Goalkeeper.

The cross-country team also is going strong and is one that will unquestionably shine in championship circles. Last Friday afternoon the barriers carried the Maroon and White colors to victory over North-east by a perfect score, 15 to 45, in the midst of the season's first snow storm. Thomas Ottey, the captain, as usual ran away with first place and Miller, a teammate, took second. The finish was as follows: Third, Derry, L. M.; fourth, Parke, L. M.; fifth, McAvoy, L. M.; sixth, Dudley, N. E.; seventh, Smith, L. M.; eighth, Hettenback, N. E.; ninth, Wyersack, N. E.; tenth, Kramer, N. E.

On Friday the hill and daleers travel to Lancaster to try to vanquish the strong Franklin and Marshall team. Thus far the Lower Merion runners have kept a clean slate and a victory over the Lancasterians will be quite an achievement.

Eleven Wins Again.

The Maroon and White football team took another step towards the Suburban championship in defeating the shifty Abington eleven by a score of 6 to 0. For four years straight the Merion team has broken Abington's hope for a championship eleven each time smearing Abington's clean slate for the first defeat of the season.

Accompanied by the school board and a host of rooters the Adam aggregation encamped in Abington and played the first away game through a blinding snowstorm and adverse conditions of the field.

In the first period the game was largely a punting duel between the two elevens, the Lower Merion team starting the game and holding the Abingtonites during the first part of the quarter. Substitutions of first-string men followed in the latter part of the quarter and the Merion men immediately commenced an offensive drive towards Abington's goal line. On coming within scoring distance the Merion men after three line bucks thought they had put the ball over but found the fact disputed by the home eleven. Another buck was made and Cnower pierced the opposing ranks for a touchdown, but even this was disputed by the rival eleven.

The second half found the Abington team out fighting the Merion eleven and although the Abington team didn't come within scoring distance, a better grade of football was exhibited by the Merion opponents than by the local eleven. The final period found the Ardmore combination once more the master of the field and after Abington had smashed within 20 yards of a touchdown the leather squirted from one of the Abington backs' arms and Jack Miller gathering the ball up raced with almost perfect interference for 70 yards for a touchdown. However, one of the officials claimed that he had seen a Lower Merion player attempting to trip one of Abington's men so only half of the gain was allowed and the touchdown discredited. Darkness was settling and before many more plays the game ended with Lower Merion the victor, 6 to 0.

COMMUNITY CLUB

Mrs. E. C. Drew gave brief comments, prepared by Mrs. C. P. Fowler, on the candidates for county offices and urged the women who had not already voted to do so.

Mrs. Robert Fellows Wood reviewed rapidly, but graphically, her visit to England last summer and in greater detail her last day in London. That day, in spite of the innumerable tasks of packing, etc., she made time to visit Hampton Court, the scene of the rise and fall of Cardinal Wolsey, of the varied loves of Henry VIII, and of the lives of a succession of England's rulers and their favorites; to see from a motorboat the famous houseboat life of the upper Thames; and to get glimpses of the beauties of the Kew Gardens. She made us see it all with her, from the hailing of the first taxi to the peanuts which the monkeys did not get.

Mrs. Horner's whistled solos were a delight. The liquid, bird-like notes made one forget the bleakness of November in the thoughts of spring.

The hostess, Mrs. J. A. England, and her aides, served tea and dainty sandwiches, over which groups reviewed their summer experiences.

ESTABLISH SCHOLARSHIP

The Main Line School of Music, 107 Ardmore avenue, announces a partial scholarship in piano.

The applicant must be a resident of the Main Line, not over eighteen years of age, and the test will be for intermediate grade. All applicants must file application in person with the secretary at the school any time between November 9 to November 18.

The partial plan is that the student wishing to have two lessons weekly, the school will offer one of these free. If they desire one lesson weekly the school offers to pay one-half the amount, the applicant to receive instruction under Miss Florence Leonard, director of the piano department. The purpose of the scholarship is to assist anyone of exceptional talent who cannot afford the full fee for instruction.

It is hoped that at a later date the school will be in a position to offer free scholarship in all departments.

PRESIDENT NASH

Mr. Robert J. Nash has been the recipient of scores of congratulations from his friends during the past week, since his return from the convention of the Pennsylvania Real Estate Association, held at Washington, Pa.

Mr. Nash was elected President of the State Realty body, succeeding Earl S. Kester, of Allentown. He is a member and a vice president of the Philadelphia Real Estate Board, a member of the Union League, and a past president of the Philadelphia Kiwanis Club.

SAUERKRAUT SUPPER

Next Thursday and Friday from 5 to 7:30 P. M., a sauerkraut supper will be held at the home of Mrs. John S. Kriebel, 115 Iona avenue.

The affair is being given by Mrs. Kriebel as her share in the work of raising funds for the building fund of the Presbyterian Church.

Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Kriebel at Narberth 358-M.

DANCING CLASS TO OPEN

The dancing class that has been conducted by the Women's Community Club will resume its activities on November 14, at 10 A. M. Miss Marjorie Carter will again instruct the pupils. Announcements of details will be mailed to former members.

WIT AND HUMOR

Keep in mind Friday evening, November 13. An evening of entertainment, wit and humor—the lecture to be given by Rev. M. H. Nichols in the Narberth Methodist Church.

FAIR PRICE POLICY

The newspapers have printed several reports of the inflated prices charged by some retail dealers for their coal at the present time.

Frankly, there have been opportunities for getting abnormal profits. But we realize that such a policy is very foolish, and nothing more than bad business. We are building for permanence rather than the immediate gain of the moment.

A comparison of our prices anywhere in Philadelphia will substantiate our claim of a fair price policy.

THE GROUND BREAKING

street," countered Mr. Wohlert. "Not at all," the Burgess said. "We will dig up the street in the presence of witnesses and clear up the matter at once."

And so the hour of 12:30 P. M. Wednesday was fixed for the ground-breaking ceremony. At that time a group stood about a spot at the intersection of Conway and Stuart avenues, indicated by Mr. Wohlert. Among those present when the street was excavated were:

Carl B. Metzger, Burgess of the Borough of Narberth; Anton Emil Wohlert, nurseryman and Democratic candidate for Council; William R. D. Hall, President of Council, ex-member of the State Highway Department; George B. Suplee, Street Commissioner of the Borough of Narberth; Tex Ramsdell, President of the Ramsdell Construction Company, who took over the Good Roads Co. contract; Mr. Ramsdell's foreman, accused of covering up the mud; Charles F. Mebus, of the Borough Engineers, who accepted the work for the Borough; G. F. Cannon, his inspector; the Editor of "Our Town," summoned to record in imperishable print the results of the autopsy.

A husky negro raised his pick and turned up a large block of macadam surface. Under it was closely-rolled foundation stone. A cut 5 inches by 18 inches was made, down to the bottom of the road work. A ruler was brought into play.

Instead of clay, they found 10 inches of foundation stone, instead of the 7 inches called for in the specifications. Among the stones was much yellow clay, which had oozed up from the soggy ground underneath, and which had given the suspicious appearance to the section.

"It looks to me," said Mr. Metzger, "as though the contractor instead of covering up a bad job, has concealed some generosity."

"I was not criticizing the bulk of Mr. Ramsdell's job, which I think is excellent," remarked Mr. Wohlert, "but the appearance of this part of the work certainly looked bad to me."

"Are you satisfied that the work is O. K.?" queried the Burgess. "Perfectly," answered Mr. Wohlert.

Mr. Ramsdell launched into a speech in which he labeled the incident as "a political stunt on Mr. Wohlert's part, in which I was the goat." This Mr. Wohlert was quick to deny, calling attention to the fact that it happened the work was done about election time, and his interest in the street program prompted him to make the complaint.

Mr. Metzger observed that after all, the incident was a tribute to the excellent work of the contractor, and to Mr. Wohlert's public spirit. The meeting adjourned to various restaurants.

The workman calmly went about filling up the hole.

POLITICIANS SHOULD BE IMPARTIAL AS LEAGUE

"Politicians might learn a great deal from us. The League of Women Voters meets only when it has something constructive to tell. The world will never get anywhere with destructive criticism, and slams at the other fellow. Nothing can be done in anything, least of all in politics, unless a constructive course of action has been decided upon."

Commenting on lax law enforcement, Miss Ely said the consumers were just as much to blame as the bootleggers, and perhaps even more, for many so-called respectable citizens are setting before their children the terrible example of law-breaking.

"There is nothing more demoralizing in the United States today," she said, "than the violation of prohibition by the persons who buy liquor and have it sent to their houses, where their growing children are there to observe."

Candidates Criticized.

Miss Ely severely criticized the four candidates for the office of directors of the poor for their failure to appear at the conference and address the women.

"One hundred and forty-nine thousand dollars is spent every year by our directors of the poor in the county," she said, "yet these men, who are candidates for the office, are not interested enough to come here and let us see the men we are asked to vote for. That could not happen in our homes or in any business. We would not think of engaging a cook or nursemaid whom we had not seen."

Several offices in the County League were filled. Miss Margaret P. Saunders, of Norristown, was re-elected treasurer; Mrs. Edward C. Durfee, of Pottstown, and Mrs. C. P. Fowler, of Narberth, were re-elected as vice-chairmen for two-year terms, and Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., of North Ardmore, was elected vice-chairman to succeed Mrs. Julius S. Weyl. Mrs. John G. Wilson continues as vice-chairman. New directors are: Miss Elizabeth Forrest Johnson, Bryn Mawr; Mrs. Reginald Small, Jenkintown; Mrs. Graham Dougherty, Wyncoffe, and Mrs. Franklin P. Sockett, Haverford.

Among those from the Main Line who attended the Conference were State Representative Miss Martha Thomas, Mrs. George Vaux, Mrs. J. Aubrey Sutton, Mrs. Conyers Read, Miss Sydney Evans, Mrs. Edgar S. Gardner, Miss Suzanne Yocom, Mrs. William M. Gehmann, Miss Lucy Sutton.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will be held on Wednesday, November 11, from 10 o'clock until 4.

Sewing for Presbyterian Hospital. In addition to the regular work of the auxiliary the donations of jellies and can goods will be received for the Presbyterian Hospital. This is the usual Thanksgiving offering.

All women of the church and auxiliary are urged to interest their friends in this work. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this meeting.

To the Philadelphia Business Man

Who Resides in Narberth

Has it ever occurred to you that it might be very helpful from a business standpoint if you were to become identified with your home town Bank?

A certain amount of publicity is circulated about a new Bank and its latest depositors; publicity which is bound to spread the name of both bank and patron.

The pioneers of any enterprise, whether they are settling new territories or establishing an institution, are the men whom people talk about.

Isn't it a good thing in business to get yourself talked about—if the impression that results is going to build good-will for you in your community?

The Narberth National Bank

SCHOOL FUND EXHIBIT

Library Displaying Books Bought With School Appropriation.

As an indication of appreciation for the School Board's generous co-operation the Library is now displaying in a special group all books which have been purchased so far with the $500 appropriation given to the Library by the School Board this year. The most conspicuous group in this collection are the 25 volumes of the New International Encyclopedia, which cost $145. This encyclopedia is constantly in use every day the Library is open by both school pupils and adults. It is rapidly becoming the community reference book.

In addition, $130 has been spent to buy works of standard English literature which were on the required reading lists of the schools attended by Narberth young people. That amount purchased 80 such books and every day students are selecting from among them those books which they prefer for their "required reading." All of the books in this collection have been bought with reinforced bindings, which will greatly increase their durability in library and school use. The school fund exhibit has already attracted much attention. The Library still has left $225 out of the fund. That will be used principally for books that collaborate with school work.

The Library received this week and will exhibit on the bulletin board soon an original Fountain Fox cartoon. It is one of the Moonerville drawings, which are familiar to all newspaper readers. The will be interested to see exactly how this gifted comic artist produces his work. Another recent gift, which is exceedingly useful to the members of the staff who have to be sure to close the Library on time to hurry home get dinner, is a mantel clock, which was presented by Mrs. H. N. P. Dole, formerly of the Windsor-Essex here in Narberth, and now living in New York. This gift was made to the Library through Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, a member of the staff.

The Library has in the past been open on some holidays and closed on others, depending upon the convenience of those members of the staff who were responsible for that particular day of the week on which the holiday fell. There is need of a more definite policy, and for the information of the public it is not now too early to state definitely that the Library will be closed for the Thanksgiving holiday.

WEDDING SOON

The wedding day is approaching for three Narberth beauties—one a dashing blond, one a winsome brown-eyed lass and the other a coquettish flapper. They may be viewed in their bridal gowns at the doll table at the Methodist Bazaar December 5. Their trousseaus also on display.

BACK FROM FLORIDA

Mr. Stanley D. Berg has returned to Narberth from Sanford, Florida, where he journeyed with his family a few weeks ago. Mr. Berg reports that the automobile trip was very interesting and that after winding up his business at Philadelphia he will locate permanently in Sanford, Florida.

MAC NIVEN—ARNOLD

Miss Agnes Mary Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Arnold, of Ardmore, and Mr. James A. MacNiven, of Haverford, were married on Thursday, October 29, by the Rev. Andrew H. Haughey at the residence of the bride's parents. Only the immediate families were present. The bride wore a peach chiffon dress and was attended by her sister, Miss Jean Arnold, who wore a poudre blue crepe de chine dress. After the ceremony the bride and groom left for a motor trip in the South and on their return will reside in Haverford.

AT FOOTBALL GAME

Miss Thelma Fowler is attending the Harvard-Princeton game at Princeton.

Residents of south side of Merion are impatiently awaiting the completion of the widening of Lancaster avenue, which is now under way between City Line and Ardmore.

MUCH IS DOING AT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Weekly School News Brimming With Interesting Bits.

A Camp-Fire Group was organized in connection with the Narberth Junior High School last year, with Miss Josephine Tyson as guardian. It is now being carried on by almost an entirely different group of girls. The chief aims of this society are to present health and knowledge to girls in such a way that it is all fun. There are meetings held every Monday afternoon at 3.30, in Room 9, except once a month, when a ceremonial meeting is held at the home of one of the members.

This society was organized in 1911 by a group of men and women who were interested in the welfare of girls. Camp-Fire is carried on in twenty-two different countries, which shows its popularity among the girls of the world.

Camp-Fire is entirely self-supporting, so the group this year is giving a bazaar on December 10, in the vicinity of the Haverford avenue business section, in order to earn money for a camping trip. There will be cakes, candy and novelties. Buy your Christmas gifts from the Camp-Fire Girls.

During the week of Hallowe'en, some startling pranks were played on the school. One morning the pupils were surprised to find a "For Sale" sign on the Athletic Field. Another morning, a "Sold" sign had been erected on the corner of the Junior High School lawn at Essex and Sabine avenues. These pranks afforded the school pupils much entertainment.

Saturday, October 31, the Narberth Junior High School soccer team was defeated by the Girard Freshman team. The score was 3-0, all scoring being done in the first half. The Girard team was skilled in heading the ball and did some fine work. The backfield was exceptionally good and stopped the Narberth forwards many times. The Narberth backfield also did some fine work and kept feeding the forwards with the ball. The Girard team was of our size, but showed a better knowledge of soccer. They were well pleased with our playing and agreed to play us in any sport we wanted. The field was very muddy, but that did not make the game slow. There were many spectators there, with the exception of a few Narberth rooters. The Narberth team was well taken care of with showers and lockers and were treated cordially. The Girard team is going to play us a return game in soccer, and we hope to treat them equally as well. We also want to see more Narberth rooters, as a good game is guaranteed.

The varsity hockey team of the Narberth Junior High School will play Springfield Junior High on Friday, November 6, at 3.30 P. M. The game will be held on the Narberth Junior High Athletic Field. The line-up is as follows:

Center—Eleanor Michaelson.
Right inside—Phyllis Grant.
Centre halfback—Bernice Piercy.

Right fullback—Annette Watson.

Goal guard—Almira Gregory.
Miss Church, the coach, is trying to get as many games as possible with outside schools, so that the girls will have a real live hockey season.

The Classical Club had charge of the Assembly program on October 30. As it is a Latin Club, everything was carried through in that language as far as possible. The Twenty-third psalm was read in Latin by Ernestine Hunt, and then slides of Pompeii were given by Virginia Eyre. These slides gave a very good picture of the city since it has been excavated. "America" was sung by the school, followed by the Latin classes, who sang it in Latin. Nursery rhymes were read in Latin and pantomimed. Madeleine Baughman read them and the following pantomimed them: Jack and Jill.

Ruth Walker, Kathryn Aungst, Jack Horner, Elizabeth Terry, Little Miss Muffet, Susan Reeves, Tom, the Piper's Son, Elizabeth Terry, The Gutter, Emma Lentz. The program was then closed by the Latin classes, singing in Latin, "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," "The Old Gray Mare" and "My Mother and Father Are Irish." When the last song was sung, Madeleine Baughman, dressed as the Irish father, and Catherine Patton, dressed as the mother, appeared on the stage with a pig.

The school library, besides its increasing number of new books, has now subscribed to a large number of magazines. In some cases these magazines will supplement the class assignments, but in other cases they will give pleasure as well as instruction to their users. The list is as follows:

Arts and Decorations.
Atlantic Monthly.
Bookman.
Classical Journal.
Current History.
English Journal.
Golden Book.
Historical Outlook.
Hygeia.
Literary Review.
National Geographic.
New York Times Book Review.
Popular Science Monthly.
School Arts.
School Science and Mathematics.
Theatre Magazine.
Time.
Travel.
Magazine World.
Music and Youth.

The new form of pupil's report card issued on Friday is much more comprehensive than that of former years. The latter was confined almost exclusively to numerical averages, but the new type of card stresses personal traits and habits as well.

Many pupils who are unable to achieve high standards in class work are faithful and industrious and often are a greater asset to the school than pupils whose sole virtue lies in intellectual ability.

Co-operation, leadership, school spirit and other traits are quite as essential for developing future good citizens as scholastic ability and they should receive the appreciation that is their due.

The new report will indicate to parents in large measure the complete activities, attitudes and interests of the pupil in his school life.

Editors for this issue: Madeleine Baughman and Elizabeth Terry.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Conforming to a custom of several years the annual Girl Scout Rally will be held this Saturday, in which Scouts from every troop on the Main Line will take part. Miss Wright's School at Bryn Mawr has been chosen as the site for this rally.

The program consists of various contests of Scout work. Among these will be a signalling contest in which several volunteers from each troop will take part. Last year a Scout official signalled a message which the contestants wrote down and then memorized. After they had run around some buildings and a tennis court they returned to the official to whom they then recited the message.

Also contests in bandages, knot tying, and fire building, will be staged. In the morning eight second-class Scouts from each troop will prepare a dinner. The selection of food will be left entirely to the contestants and the winners will be chosen not for speed in preparation, but efficiency.

Points will be given to the scouts winning in any one contest and the winning troop will be selected as the one having earned the most points at the end of the afternoon.

As the Scouts already know the "Troop Advancement" pins will be awarded to the individuals of last year's Narberth Girl Scout Troop. These were earned by the town troop for having accomplished more in the past year than any other troop in the district.

As the rally will start sharply at 1.30 all Scouts from Narberth should leave on the 2.01 train. However, those Scouts in the morning dinner-making contest should leave on the 2.30 bus.

At the meeting held this Tuesday evening Captain Nash expressed the desire for better co-operation on the part of a few indifferent Scouts. The success of the rally depends upon each Scout, and she must do her part. We hope to have a hundred per cent. attendance, as well as the fullest co-operation on the part of every Scout.

Through the kindness of Mr. Dando, the Narberth Thimble Club will hold a bake in his store on the afternoon of next Friday, November 13, from 2 to 5 o'clock. A most worthy cause will be benefited by the proceeds.
